

Collect

Almighty God,
you love and cherish all whom you have created;
forgive us that we have,
rejected our Jewish brothers and sisters, and so many others since; grant that we, having come to recognise our complicity in their persecution, may find that forgiveness through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen,

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Preface

It is truly right, our duty and our joy, that we give you thanks and praise holy and almighty Father through Christ our Lord; that through your Chosen people, the Jews, you brought about the means of our salvation.
And so with all the Church on earth, we bless and praise your holy Name, saying....

(SANCTUS)

Merciful God,
you have called us forth, through your Son, our Saviour, to be a part of your Chosen People.
So we give thanks for all who have gone before us especially for those named 'Righteous among the Gentiles', who stood out against the persecution of your first children, our elder brothers and sisters, and inspire us to stand against all such persecutions.

We praise you also for our Lord Jesus Christ, our Saviour, who sprang from your Chosen People; who brings us salvation in his loving birth; his holy life; his atoning death;
and his rising from the dead:

(NARRATIVE)

And so, as we offer this bread and wine before you, and also our very lives, we pray that through your Holy Spirit, this bread may be for us the communion of the body of Christ, and this wine the communion of his blood, that in eating and drinking we may be made more truly a part of his body, both in heaven and on earth.
Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.
Amen.
